DETAILED ACTION

Claims 32 and 33 are generic and allowable. Accordingly, the restriction requirement as to the encompassed species is hereby withdrawn and claims 5, 8-31, directed to the other species are no longer withdrawn from consideration since all of the claims to this species depend from or otherwise include each of the limitations of an allowed generic claim

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-33 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Generic claim 32, the prior art of record does not teach nor suggest, in the claimed combination, an actuator, comprising: a set of magnets and a set of coils, one set arranged in a flat form and the other set facing the one set; a moving member connected to one of the set of magnets and the set of coils; a first member controlling the moving member to move within a predetermined range; a second member controlling the first member to move within another predetermined range in a second direction, perpendicular to the first direction', and the actuator moving one of the set of the coils and the set of magnets relatively to the other of the set of coils and the set of magnets.

Generic claim 33, the prior art of record does not teach nor suggest, in the claimed combination, an actuator, comprising: a set of magnets and a set of coils arranged in mutually facing relationship and movable relatively to each other; a moving
